

Belsnickle to Amish Christmas

Traditions of Christmas and Theatre too!

3 days / 2 nights—$199.00 ppdo

Christmas in and around Lancaster County is exciting as well as heart-warming. Groups interested in traditions, lights and entertainment have it all here. Begin your Christmas adventure at Landis Valley Village and receive a visit from “Der Belsnickle.” Meet the rascally Pennsylvania Dutch holiday character who dresses in furs and bells and carries a bag of goodies in one hand for good kids and a switch in the other for bad kids. He is no Santa Clause.

Continue the adventure with hands on experience at the Amish Experience. Here you will learn how the Amish children celebrate the Christmas season in the Fisher Schoolhouse. A delightful program is will be performed!

A rare opportunity awaits as an Amish Family invites your group to their home for an evening. Meet four generations of the Reihls who actually sit down and have a meal with your clients, discuss their traditions and enjoy your guests. An exclusive program with All-In-One tours.

Milton Hershey’s extraordinary life included Christmas traditions of his own. Learn about his traditions and enjoy Hershey’s Sweet Lights, and Chocolate World. A visit from the real Santa at the National Christmas Center and visit Tudor Town, lots of hands on experience and a great deal of fun awaits your group!
