

German Traditions

Past & Present

Begin this Christmas Adventure at the Heritage Center at Market Square as we take you on a journey through Lancaster's Christmas Story. Featuring the Lancaster Quilt and Textile Museum's delightful exhibit of Christmas through the Years—curated by Jim Morrison of the National Christmas Center— and highlighting the heritage of cookie making in Pennsylvania Dutch Country. This exclusive program includes a guided tour, special hands on unique cookie-making traditions. You will leave with a special Springerle cookie. Lunch is on your own in Lancaster City with many wonderful restaurants or perhaps lunch at Central Market. Some shopping time is included.

Continue celebrating the season with the Amish Experience! Your step-on guide will take you through the farmlands as you learn of the PA Dutch and Amish Christmas Traditions. Tour the Heritage Site Country Homestead with it's seasonal decorations. Receive a cookie in the kitchen and a recipe for "Scripture Cake." Your guests, then become part of the school as we recreate a typical Amish Christmas school program in the Fisher schoolhouse, filling the air with laughter and Amish Carols.

Complete the day with a rare opportunity as an Amish Family invites your guests to their home for an evening. Meet four generations of the Reihls who will sit down and have a meal with your group, discuss their Christmas traditions and enjoy your guests. This is an exclusive program with All-In-One Tours.
