Service beyond your expectations!

Set aside the hustle and bustle of modern Christmas and step back to the 1860's. Experience Christmas through the eyes of the Shriver's a typical family in Gettysburg during the Civil War. Learn traditions of this small family and tour the home all dressed up for Christmas.

Have lunch or dinner in a historic tavern and meet Abe Lincoln who will tell the stories of several White House Christmases. You may be surprised.

Jump about a 100 years and the meet Eisenhowers who retired in Gettysburg. Tour their little farm decorated in the traditions of the 1950s. Big trees big lights and lots of greens. Be delighted with the stories of their Christmases and traditions.

Include some time in a couple of the fabulous gift shops and pick up that last minute gift.

Add a show at the Majestic Theatre and a tour of the area with wine tasting and more and have a delightful overnight.
