Day Trip Tour Ideas

Traditional Farmlands Tour (4 hours)

Go "off the beaten path" and get an excellent overview of the Lancaster way of life. Includes stops at a Amish farm quilt shop and at an Amish bake shop. Optional guided tour of the Amish Farm & House is also available.

Market Basket Tour (5-6 hours)

Guests are given wicker "market" baskets and vouchers to be redeemed for food items during the tour stops. Everyone goes home with a basket filled with a variety of local goodies. Can also include lunch.

Galloping Gourmet (6-7 hours)

Various options can be included in this Progressive Meal Tour. Have soup and salad at one stop, an entrée at another stop, and dessert at a third stop. Also enjoy chef demonstrations, shopping, and a wine tasting.

Lancaster City Tour (3-5 hours)

Learn the history of this wonderful city, view some beautiful murals, visit a museum or two, and do some shopping - the possibilities are endless.

Pubs, Prohibition & Piety Tour (4-5 hours)

Learn about Lancaster City's somewhat shady past during the time of Prohibition. Tour a brewery (and do some sampling!), visit a church with an interesting past, and have lunch at a local pub.

ChocolateTown U.S.A. (Hershey) Tour (4-5 hours)

Enjoy a guided trolley tour around town and learn about the man who started it all - Milton Hershey - then spend some time at Chocolate World. Local museums can also be included.

Gettysburg Tour (6-7 hours)

Visit the site of one of the most decisive battles in American history. A licensed guide will conduct a two-hour tour of the National Historic Park. Tour can also include lunch, shopping, Boyd's Bear Country & museums.

Philadelphia Tour (8-9 hours)

Visit the "Birthplace of the Nation" - where America began their quest for freedom and independence. Tour Independence Square, see the Liberty Bell, take a guided city tour, and spend time in a huge farmers market.

Lititz Tour (3-4 hours)

Check out the Wilbur Chocolate Factory store & museum and Sturgis Pretzels (the oldest pretzel bakery in America). Spend time exploring the shops and historic buildings in this quaint town. Lunch can be included.

Longwood Gardens (6-7 hours)

Visit the world's premier horticultural attraction. Stroll through more than 1,000 acres of outdoor gardens and beautiful conservatories and spend time in the wonderful gift shop. Lunch can be included.

Train Lover's (Strasburg) Tour (4-5 hours)

"All Aboard" the Strasburg Rail Road, America's oldest short-line railroad; tour the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania; visit the Choo Choo Barn; explore the National Toy Train Museum.

Theatre Presentations (3-4 hours)

Lancaster County has numerous theatre options to choose from: Sight & Sound (Bible stories & live animals), the American Music Theatre (musical revues & celebrity concerts), the Fulton Opera House (Broadway-caliber performances), Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre (Broadway musicals), Rainbow Dinner Theatre (all comedies), Freedom Chapel Dinner Theatre (unique shows on a historic property)

Shopping (3-5 hours)

Divide your time between the outlet shops, a huge enclosed shopping mall, farmers markets, antique shops, and other unique shopping venues.

Pre- and Post-Convention Multi-Day Tour Ideas

ABC Tour - the Amish, Battlefields, & Chocolate (3-4 days)

Learn about Lancaster's Amish, visit the battlefields of Gettysburg, and tour ChocolateTown U.S.A. On this tour, you'll learn more than your ABC's!

Haunted Lancaster (2-3 days; can also be scheduled as a day trip)

Enjoy driving tours, an optional walking tour, great food, a formal wine tasting - and plenty of ghost stories!

Small Town Experience (3 days)

Contained within the small Lancaster County towns of Ephrata, New Holland, and Blue Ball, this tour is great for those who think they know everything Lancaster has to offer!
