

CHRISTMAS CHARM IN THE LAUREL HIGHLANDS

(Note: Shows and decoration theme may vary from year-to-year)
2 Days/1 Night

Celebrate the holidays in the Laurel Highlands with your friends. Upon arrival in southwestern Pennsylvania meet your local guide and enjoy lunch at a charming country inn. Following lunch, tour the Compass Inn, a restored 1799 stagecoach stop. Your overnight lodging is at the Mountain View Inn, where the theme is "A Williamsburg Christmas" featuring live trees decorated with natural trimmings and marvelous antiques throughout the Inn. Dinner is included at the inn this evening. Following dinner depart for Overly Country Christmas. Enjoy a guided driving tour through the lights display and time to stroll around the grounds....see the nativity scene, bonfire, hear the Christmas carols and enjoy the gift shop.

A hot breakfast is included this morning before a visit to the nearby Four Points Hotel Parade of Trees. You may "vote" for your favorite trees by dropping donations into a collection box. All proceeds benefit area children's charities. Time will be given to browse at Craftique Collections, featuring dozens of individual crafters offering a wide variety of wares. At the newly renovated Westmoreland Museum of American Art you see a wonderful collection of Antique Toys and Trains and a collection of American art. Lunch will be served at an area church before a tour of Cochran House Victorian Home beautifully restored and decorated for the Holiday Season. This afternoon tour Cochran Memorial United Methodist Church, reminiscent of a European Cathedral and hear musical entertainment before your departure for home.

Tour includes round-trip motor coach transportation, one night's lodging, baggage, taxes, one breakfast, two lunches, one dinner, all touring and entertainment, step on guide, and guide gratuity.
