

KEGS, CORKS & A CASTLE

Join your friends as you embark on a unique day of touring. This unforgettable tour will satisfy your palate and your desire to experience something new!

Your first stop will be the Yuengling Brewery. This walking tour through a working brewery shows the bottling and canning line and the Brewhouse. Samples are available in the German bar. Visit the museum and the gift shop.

Your next stop is the Stokesay Castle, which was built in 1931 by George Bear Hiester as a honeymoon cottage for his bride. He closely duplicated the original Stokesay castle in Shropshire, England, which was built in 1240 and is still in existence, which had impressed him on a trip to England.

Following lunch you will visit the Clover Hill Vineyards & Winery, one of Pennsylvania's most distinctive wineries. Tour the winery and taste as you go! This tour offers something for everyone and will certainly delight all!

Price of the tour includes motor coach transportation, Yuengling Brewery tour, lunch at Stokesay Castle, lunch taxes & gratuity, Clover Hill Vineyards & Winery tour and tasting.
