Service beyond
your expectations!

This tour includes plenty of holiday-related activities and attractions, including a theatre performance, a guided "Celebrations Tour" of downtown Lancaster, a Planetarium show, shopping and lots more!

The theatre presentation is American Music Theatre's "Christmas Show" which is constantly being compared to the holiday show at Radio City Music Hall. The unique "Celebrations Tour" explores the ethnic and religious diversity of Lancaster City and provides an inside view of this region's cultural and religious celebrations. The holiday show at the North Museum's Planetarium is called "t'is the Season" and is all about the coldest and darkest season – winter. During this show you'll learn about the historical, religious and cultural rituals practiced around the winter solstice, how these customs involve lighting up the season and, of course, the "Star of Bethlehem."

You'll also take part in a holiday cookie-making demonstration and visit the very popular and one-of-a-kind National Christmas Center. And don't worry – this tour includes plenty of time for holiday shopping too!

Tour package includes:

- Two night's lodging (including baggage handling)
