Service beyond
your expectations!

Come to a Lancaster "Mud Sale." Don't know what a Mud Sale is? They're a series of fundraiser auctions for local Fire Companies, and they draw lots of local Lancaster folks, including the Amish. Appropriately named for the condition of the thawing ground, these sales are known for great buys and great local food! You'll find bargains on anything from Amish quilts and antiques to buggies and lawn equipment. Try your hand at bidding or just observe the action. The "sea of buggies" used to transport the Amish to these sales is truly an awesome sight.

Several weekends to choose from – all tours are Friday, Saturday, Sunday (with the Mud Sale event on Saturday) and the Mud Sale "season" runs from late February through early April.

Tour package includes:

- Two night's lodging (including baggage handling)
- A guided visit to a Mud Sale
- Visits to a couple of local farmers markets
- An all-you-can-eat family-style dinner AND a shoofly pie & whoopie pie demonstration at the Hershey Farm Restaurant
- Special lunch at a Lancaster City restaurant
- Guided Farmlands Tour
- AND - because they don't call them "mud sales" for nothing - we'll even provide protective footwear!
