

Pubs, Prohibition & Piety

Revisit Lancaster during the time of Prohibition

One-Day Tour

During this tour you will learn how Prohibition affected life in the fair city of Lancaster. You'll hear about the breweries that at one time gave Lancaster the title of "the Munich of the West." Learn about the mysterious vaults where beer was made and distributed to speak-easies. Hear about the crooked judge in Lancaster who helped bootleggers get off scot-free. You'll also visit a local church and learn how one of its past rectors and other upstanding citizens and businessmen organized the Law and Order Society to "clean up" Lancaster, and learn how one Lancaster man eliminated bootleggers, the mob, and the crooked police force in less than a year.

You'll also find out about some of the pubs, bars and lounges available today while driving through the city. The tour concludes with a brewery tour and some tasty samples—plus lunch in a local pub.

Tour package includes:

- A narrated driving tour through Lancaster (although there is also some walking involved)
- Tour of a local brewery
- A delicious lunch in a local pub
- Visit to a local church, where you'll learn about the minister who helped clean up Lancaster
