

A Duck Tour & High Tea

Baltimore, Maryland

Explore the unexpected on Baltimore's only land and water adventure. Discover untold secrets of Charm City aboard the Discovery Channel Duck. Be part of the fun on this wild 80-minute expedition. From Fells Point to Federal Hill, from Camden Yards to the Constellation, the Baltimore adventure begins as you step aboard. Hop on board, get your free Wacky Quacker and meet your Coast Guard licensed Captain and guide. In addition to the fun, the quacking, and the splash down into the Inner Harbor, you'll learn area history, insider tips and helpful city information that are an important part of every tour.

After docking you will have some free time for lunch and shopping at the Inner Harbor, but eat a light lunch because high tea at the Evergreen House is next and you'll want to leave room for wide array of finger sandwiches, scones, cheese cake, and much more. Evergreen House, one of the historic homes owned by Johns Hopkins University. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, Evergreen House is a magnificent 48-room Italianate home on 26 wooded and landscaped acres. Highlights of the collections include post-Impressionist paintings, Japanese netsuke and inro, Tiffany glass and, a 30,000-volume library that forms the core of the special collections at Johns Hopkins. We end our day with an afternoon tea, specially arranged for our group, in the Far East Room at Evergreen House.

Price of this tour includes: Duck Tour, "Wacky Quacker", tour and High Tea at Evergreen House, free time at Harbor Place, and round trip motor coach transportation.
