Adventures in Dining Tours

An Alice in Wonderland Experience—“Mad Hatter Tea Party”

Begin with a morning tour of the Surreybrook Gardens. Here you will find unusual annuals—those hard-to-find varieties, herbs and perennials. Then, re-board the motor coach for the Inn at Buckeystown. Step inside this wonderland of fun and fantasy! Experience a unique teatime with the expected as well as the unexpected. Your gracious hosts will prepare a lovely selection of soups, scones, creams and jams, sandwiches and savories, and of course a selection of divine desserts. Following tea, visit the Frederick County Historical Society, an 1800’s mansion in the heart of historic Frederick before departing for home.

A Taste of Lancaster and Lebanon Counties - This tour features a culinary experience with international flair, historic inns, and unique shops and stops along the way. Includes breakfast snack and coffee or tea at the Nav Jiwan Tea Room at Ten Thousand Villages. Store staff will give you a brief orientation on this unique restaurant and store filled with gifts from around the world. Next, enjoy soup or salad at the historic Lincoln House Restaurant. Then travel to Brickerville for the main course at the Brickerville House. Dessert and coffee or tea is included at MJ’s Coffeehouse at the Allen Theatre in Annville.

A Taste of Lancaster County #1 - A truly “delicious” day in Lancaster County! Indulge yourself in fabulous food and magnificent atmosphere as you travel from one culinary treasure to the next. You will begin with a tour of the National Watch and Clock Museum where you will enjoy light refreshments. You will experience the “treasure of time” as you discover and explore this unique museum and all the fascinating things it has to offer. Next stop is in Marietta for a delicious soup and salad at the Railroad House Restaurant, a national register historic site. Continuing on, you head to the Old Greenfield Inn for your main course. The Inn is a quaint, restored farmhouse with casual dining in their relaxed atmosphere. The grand finale of this spectacular meal will be dessert, coffee and tea at one of the local restaurants.

A Taste of Lancaster County #2 - Includes video, a guided tour of kitchens, bake ovens and open hearths, a horse-drawn wagon ride (weather permitting), and a PA Dutch treat with a beverage at the Landis Valley Museum, soup and salad at Kreider’s Restaurant in Manheim, tour of Kreider’s Dairy Farm, main course at the General Sutter Restaurant in Lititz, dessert and coffee or tea at the Nav Jiwan Tea Room at Ten Thousand Villages in Ephrata.
A Tasty Sample of Lancaster and Lebanon Counties

A truly “delicious” day in Lancaster and Lebanon Counties! Indulge yourself in fabulous food and varied atmospheres as you travel from one culinary treasure to the next. Begin with a visit to historic Landis Valley Museum for a video, a guided tour of the kitchens, bake ovens and open hearths, a horse-drawn wagon ride (weather permitting), and a PA Dutch treat with a beverage. Next, enjoy soup or salad at either the Akron OR Leola Family Restaurant, followed by a visit and tour of the Sturgis Pretzel Factory OR Wilbur Chocolate Museum and Outlet in Lititz. Then travel to Brickerville for the main course at the historic Brickerville House. Dessert samples and coffee or tea are included at MJ’s Coffeehouse at the Allen Theatre in Annville before returning to home base.

A Taste of York – Begin at the National Watch and Clock Museum in Columbia to see “treasures of time” on a self-guided tour…then it’s over the river—the Susquehanna River—to Wrightsville for soup and salad at the Riverside Restaurant located in the John Wright Warehouse. You will have some free time to shop in the outlet store before enjoying a main course at San Carlo’s & the Hop a unique restaurant located in a converted 175-year-plus old barn, once one of the largest dairy barns in the York area. Following the main course, we transport you to Wolfgang Chocolate for a video, tour, and a chance for chocoholics to purchase some goodies to take home. Your day ends with a delectable dessert at the Starlite Diner, a “New York-style” diner that has over 60 fabulous desserts made in house by their own full-time pastry chef!

Holiday Dine-Around – Journey to the Cumberland, MD area for a unique holiday tour…begin at the History House, an eighteen room Victorian mansion, to enjoy some Christmas entertainment while dining on sweet rolls, pastries and coffee. Next travel to the Inn at Folks and learn the history of the inn while enjoying an appetizer and salad. Continue along the Old National Pike to the Clarysville Inn that prospered for many years as a tavern stage house and wagon stand along the Pike and served as a convalescent hospital during the Civil War. Here you will enjoy the main dish—a food that was served to travelers during their travel along the Pike in the 1800’s. Then enjoy cheese and fruits at the Hotel Gunter, built in 1896 and at the time was considered the finest hotel in Maryland outside of Baltimore. The day ends with a stop in Mt. Savage for a visit to the Mt. Savage Castle where you will enjoy Christmas desserts.
CARROLL COUNTY PROGRESSIVE LUNCHEON - This progressive luncheon takes us to historic Carroll County. The day begins when we pick up our guide at the Tourism Office in Westminster, Maryland. Our first course will be at Johansson’s Dining House, located on Westminster’s quaint main street. Here you will enjoy a fresh salad and bowl of soup. Then, we drive through Uniontown, a one street village frozen in time, with its post office and country store, one-room school house and charming houses. The 200-year old town is listed on the national register of historic places.

Next, in historic Taneytown, our visit is to the Antrim Inn, an 1844 country inn which has been restored in award-winning style, in Antebellum elegance! A specially catered entrée will complete your visit to the plantation. (Please Note: Low heels are requested due to the historic preservation.)

Imagine rural farm life in the 19th century as you arrive at the Carroll County Farm Museum. A costumed guide will escort you through the main house. Have a little free time to visit the grounds and gardens. You may find craft demonstrations of all kinds on view.

Complete your day with dessert at Baugher’s Restaurant. What a decision! Choose from home-made pies, cakes and their famous ice cream. Shop for fresh produce or a pie to take home with you! What a way to end the day!

Proposed tour includes motorcoach transportation, guided progressive luncheon including soup & salad at Johansson’s Dining House, driving tour through Uniontown, lunch & tour at Historic Antrim Inn, guided tour of Carroll County Farm Museum, dessert at Baugher’s Restaurant.

“Culinary Delights & A Nostalgic Day at the Movies” - This culinary tour features a bakery, historic inns, a nostalgic afternoon at the movies and a dessert sampler….

Begin with a visit to Pamera Bakery-Café for coffee or tea and a delicious, freshly baked breakfast muffin, bagel or “cobblestone”. Then re-board your deluxe motor coach and travel to the historic Brickerville House Restaurant for soup, salad and a beverage.

Continue to Lebanon County where you will enjoy a delectable main course at Inn 422, a full service Bed & Breakfast and Restaurant that combines the charm of a fully restored Victorian mansion with award winning food and amenities.

Then take a trip down memory lane at the historic Allen Theatre in Annville. Here you will enjoy a special showing of a silent movie with organ accompaniment. End your day with a dessert samples and coffee or tea at the popular MJ.’s Coffeehouse at the Allen Theatre. And, for the shoppers, there is a gift shop next door to the theatre!

A very nostalgic and enjoyable day!
At Celebrity Kitchens you will enjoy a unique, fun and social dining experience. A guest chef will cook tableside for you and with you. The end result is a delicious lunch, complimentary glass of wine and recipes to repeat the magic at home. It’s a meal and a show combined!! You may even be called upon to assist the chef in the preparation of the meal. While half the group is enjoying lunch the other half will be at Winterthur Museum, America’s Premier Museum & Garden. Then the groups will switch.

Winterthur, an American country estate, is the former home of Henry Francis du Pont (1880-1969), an avid antiques collector and horticulturist. In the early 20th century, H. F. du Pont and his father, Henry Algernon du Pont, designed Winterthur in the spirit of 18th- and 19th-century European country houses. A visit to Winterthur will immerse you in another time and place. Rediscover America’s heritage through its unparalleled collection of antiques and Americana. Venture out over the fields and farmland to learn about the workings of a great Country estate. Wander through the breathtaking beauty of the 60-acre naturalistic Winterthur Gardens. Youngsters (and the young-at-heart) will wonder at the magic of Winterthur’s famous fairy-tale children’s garden and Enchanted Woods.

Includes: motorcoach transportation, cooking demo and lunch at Celebrity Kitchens, Winterthur Museum, driver gratuity.

A Taste of Europe in the Hudson Valley
(Two days/one night)

Instead of flying to Europe, take a two day, one night journey just a few hours from your home to the Mid Hudson Valley where you can experience the music and cuisine of Italy and Germany in magnificent locations!

Although the flavor is European, the hospitality is genuinely American. Both the Williams Lake Resort and Maassmann’s Restaurant pride themselves on fabulous food, fine service and gracious hospitality. Join your friends for this “European” mini vacation in the heart of America!

Williams Lake Resort and Conference Center, located in Rosendale, NY, is situated on a 42-acre crystal clear lake, surrounded by 600 acres of pristine woodlands. You will feel like you are in Venice on a lake. Arrive for lunch, check into your room, participate in planned activities during the afternoon, and then prepare for a full-course dinner of Italian specialties. After dinner there will be music and comedy in the lounge.

After a full course country breakfast the next day, hop on the bus and travel less than one hour to Maassmann’s Restaurant at the beautiful Blackhead Mountain Lodge and Country Club and Resort in Round Top. You will be in the Black Forest of the Catskills. A wine and cheese reception followed by a scrumptious German-style lunch...German beer included, of course. Authentic German music will conclude the afternoon. Enjoy a brief escorted scenic tour throughout the majestic mountains of Greene County before departing for home.
Adventurous Mountain Memories
Progressive Dinner Tour

Two Days/One Night in Western Maryland

Join your friends on a delightful overnight journey. A professional guide will conduct a guided tour of one of the top resorts in the country, Nemacolin Woodlands Resort, a five star property. The tour will highlight the vast, eclectic art collection of the Hardy family, founders of 84 Lumber Company. A delicious lunch is included at Historic Stone House Inn, located along the National Road. This afternoon enjoy a boat cruise with Captain Bob around Deep Creek Lake. Then it's off, for check-in at one of Western Maryland's fine resorts, Rocky Gap Lodge & Golf Resort. Relax before an included dinner, explore the property or take a dip in the indoor or outdoor pool.

Day two begins with a hearty breakfast before departing for an adventurous progressive dinner tour. The first stop of the day is in Mt. Savage where you will visit Mt. Savage Castle and learn the history of the owner Mr. Ramsey. Enjoy sweet rolls, pastries and teas. Soup and salad will be served at the Hotel Gunther in Frostburg, Maryland, where travelers on the National Road once stayed in grand style. The main course is served at the Shaw Mansion, a restored Victorian mansion, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The day ends with a Victorian tea with desserts at Gordon-Roberts History House, an eighteen room Victorian mansion. Cooks Tour of New England

“A culinary trail of treats from dinners to sweets!” Here is just a sampling of some of the highlights that can be included on a seven-day package. The itinerary can be shortened to four, five or six days depending on what you want included.

Begin your adventure and lodge at the Johnson and Wales Inn and enjoy a welcome reception and dinner. Your second day highlights a hands-on culinary class in a state of the art kitchen with a professional chef instructor. Lunch is included after your class. In the afternoon you will visit the Johnson and Wales University Culinary Archives and Museum.

Your tour will continue to Maine for a tour in Kennebunkport to see the Bush’s summer home, and the Franciscan Monastery. A wine tasting party at the hotel and a dinner are included. Tour Portland to view Casco Bay, the Victoria Mansion and childhood home of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. Visit Southern Main Technical College’s Culinary Institute for a gourmet luncheon; take a cruise on Casco Bay and top of the evening with a Maine lobsterbake dinner.

Continue into the White Mountains of New Hampshire for a gourmet lunch at the famous Mount Washington Hotel. Continue to Burlington, Vermont and meet the chef instructors from the New England Culinary Institute and finish off the day with a cocktail reception and dinner.

Visit Lake Champlain Chocolates for a demonstration of how the chocolates are made and for a taste of some of the world’s finest chocolates. After your sweet tooth has been satisfied you will be heading for the Magic Hat Brewery for a look at the microbrew industry’s contributions to the palate-beer. A tour of the brewery and, of course, samples are included. The afternoon will be set aside for a chef’s demonstration back at the hotel followed by a class on wine tasting and food Pairing prior to your farewell dinner.
