

"Flavors of Lancaster City"

A great tour with lots of goodies and surprises!
Works great as a "Mystery Tour"
Lancaster, PA

Embark on a culinary journey—all within the City limits—a journey from Asia to Europe and back again. Savor ethnic and regional delicacies. Enjoy a narrated driving tour...receive an orientation, a sample and a tasty gift at an ethnic food market.

Meet Bill Mandros, Lancaster's very own cheese guru to learn about the imported cheeses and products available at Mandros Imported Foods Market.

Receive a sample of English tea from the second cousin to Ringo Star—David Hine, proprietor of Britain's Best. Stroll through the Hager Arcade and have a chance to visit other food specialty shops and boutiques.

Experience a private food demonstration with Chef Tim Carr, a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America who studied under the world-famous Chef Perrier, served Evana Trump and, who had a song dedicated to him by the group Peter, Paul and Mary. Then savor a delicious lunch at Carr's Restaurant.

Be greeted by Central Farmers Market Master Ernie Thomas and receive a loaf of homemade bread at Ric's Bread stand and enjoy some shopping time at market.

Visit the Cultural Center Museum and the new Quilt Museum and be sure to include shopping time at some of Lancaster's boutiques and shops. This tour will enable you to taste, sample and take home some very special treats and give you many reasons to re-visit and shop again in the future!

This tour is fully guided and includes a beautiful Lancaster City Tour canvas bag for each participant.
