Service beyond
your expectations!

This unique progressive meal tour takes you well beyond the usual salad/entrée/dessert type tour! You'll enjoy terrific food, exceptional service, chef demonstrations, and unique properties during this delightful and tasty tour.

Start with a tour of Landis Valley Museum & Village, a one-of-a-kind living history village dedicated to the preservation and demonstration of early Pennsylvania Dutch life. The guided tour includes home-made sticky buns, apple snitz and apple cider; plus a horse-drawn wagon ride.

The next stop on the tour will be Restaurant Mazzi, a casual yet elegant European-style restaurant. Here you'll enjoy the entrée portion of your progressive meal plus a demonstration of how the entrée was prepared.

The dessert and coffee portion of your meal (plus another chef demo) will be enjoyed at Huckleberry's Restaurant, where you'll feel as if you just stepped onto an old-fashioned river boat.

Between the entrée and dessert portion of the tour, you'll be treated to a tour at the Twin Brook Winery, followed by a wine tasting featuring some wonderful local wines, accompanied by cheese and chocolate.

This is a truly unique Progressive Meal Tour. You'll spend most of a day doing the tour, you'll learn some Pennsylvania Dutch history, see how a couple of special food items are prepared, and be treated to a special wine tasting - you definitely won't leave hungry!!
