your expectations!

Pennsylvania

We at All-In-One Tours know that student groups are often comprised of band, choral and dance groups looking for a location where they can perform—and we can set it up for you! Whether your groups are interested in Lancaster, Hershey, or Philadelphia, we can find a performance venue that's just what you're looking for! Following are just a few examples:

American Music Theatre (in Lancaster, PA)

Choral groups often perform in the theatre's beautiful lobby prior to scheduled shows and/or at intermission; dance and choral have the opportunity to perform on stage prior to scheduled shows; and marching bands may (at select times) perform by marching into the theatre, playing a song on the stage, then marching out to the lobby.

HersheyPark (in Hershey, PA)

There are various stage shows throughout the park where select groups perform; and choral and band groups often perform in public areas and at the park entrance. They even have special events and festivals that feature student group performers!

Kitchen Kettle Village (in Lancaster, PA)

Various groups often perform in public areas throughout the property, where there is always lots of people around who enjoy watching the students perform.

Philadelphia

There are many performance venues to choose from in Philadelphia—too many to list them all! Choose from museums, attractions, shopping malls, churches, and sports complexes—even parades!!
