

Olde Towne Holiday

Music Festival

December 11-13, 2009

All-In-One Tours, Cruises & Receptive Services

The Olde Towne Holiday Music Festival is a musical tribute to the spirit of the holiday season, bringing the first seven blocks of High Street alive with live performances, reenactors in period attire, carolers, and strolling characters. Concerts, which range from barbershop harmony and jazz to steel drums and brass ensembles, are staged in a variety of indoor and outdoor venues and in several historic Olde Towne locations.

From the waterfront at High Street Landing to the quaint antique shops and art galleries seven blocks away, you'll find harpists, jazz trios, brass quartets, choirs, bagpipes and more. Stroll historic High Street to experience all that the Olde Towne Holiday Music Festival has to offer. No matter what holiday you celebrate... Christmas, Hanukkah or Kwanza, you will enjoy the special musical performances staged throughout Olde Towne Portsmouth.

During the festival, bonfires on every street corner along High Street will light your way, warm your path, and keep the holiday spirit kindling while sidewalk vendors peddle candied and caramel apples, hot chocolate and cider, balloons, coffee, candy canes and other refreshments. The streets will also be filled with strolling entertainers.

While you are in town, enjoy the holiday light displays at Newport News Park, the Norfolk Botanical Garden and the Virginia Beach Boardwalk. You can also include the Virginia Living Museum's planetarium presentation of "The Star of Wonder". Visit the Moses Myers House and the Hunter House Victorian Museum for even more holiday cheer. Then head to Hampton for a fun-filled afternoon. First you'll enjoy a little ice skating at the Virginia Air & Space Center then head inside to see Polar Express on a 5-story IMAX screen.
