

Gettysburg Campaign

Three Day/Two Night Tour

From July 1 to 3, 1863, in and around the small Pennsylvania town of Gettysburg, the Federal Army of the Potomac and the Confederate Army of Northern Virginia fought one of the bloodiest battles in American history. More than 170,000 men fought in it, and over 50,000 became casualties. Retrace the drama and spectacle of the Gettysburg Campaign. Spend one day on each of the days of the battles. Learn about the military maneuvers and tactics of Lee, Meade, Longstreet, and Buford with our historian guide. Weather permitting you will have the opportunity to walk Pickett's Charge.

Meet the civilians, soldiers, and generals of Gettysburg. Learn why all thought that this was the last battle of the Civil War.

Tour package includes:

- Three nights lodging (inside corridors, full-time security service)
- Two meals each day
- Professional tour manager/escort with group for duration of tour
- Professional step-on guide services
- Explore Herr's Ridge where the first day's conflict began
- Study the three-day battle in depth
- Retrace the action at McPherson Ridge, Culp's Hill, and Cemetery Hill
- Visit the site of Pickett's famous assault, and the East Calvary Field, site of Stuart's only action during the battles
- Explore Little Roundtop and Chamberlain's bayonet defense
- Explore Devil's Den & the Peach Orchard
- Examine the battles on July 2 with Union forces on Cemetery Ridge, and Confederate forces on Seminary Ridge to the West
- Meet "Abe Lincoln"
