

Welcome to FALL IN MYRTLE BEACH

Where Coastal Charm Meets Low Country Flavor.

The summer crowds have faded, but Myrtle Beach is just hitting its stride. September brings warm sunshine, gentle ocean breezes, and the unmistakable flavors of the Low Country. This is your chance to slow down, indulge, and explore without the rush.

Your adventure begins with oceanfront views and classic Southern hospitality. Over the next few days, you'll taste your way through coastal cuisine, stroll charming walkways, visit historic plantations, and soak in the peaceful beauty of South Carolina's coast.

Whether it's a sunset over the marsh, the scent of fresh seafood, or the sound of the waves outside your window, Myrtle Beach in the fall is a story worth savoring.
